

Our Kids: Our Business

A Call to Action

To celebrate April as National Child Abuse Prevention and Sexual Assault Awareness Month, a coalition of child advocates, volunteers, business leaders, public officials and media professionals are joining together to call attention to child abuse, neglect and sexual assault issues in Jefferson County. Citizens are invited to make a positive difference in the lives of youth and families. Support the “Our Kids: Our Business” campaign and agree in the coming year to take specific action in support of the Five Promises.

Five Promises to our Children

- 1. Caring Adult
- 2. Safe Places and Constructive Activities
- 3. A Healthy Start and Future
- 4. Effective Education for Marketable Skills
- 5. Opportunities to Serve

Please consider turning your concern into action by completing the pledge form below.

For details look for the pinwheel logo or go to:

www.jeffcocommunitynetwork.org or www.jeffersoncountypublichealth.org

Presented by:

Jefferson County Community Network and Jefferson County Public Health

Also Sponsored by:

City of Port Townsend – All Departments, Jefferson County – All Departments, Jefferson County Board of Health, Dove House Advocacy Services, Developmental Disabilities Advisory Board, Jefferson County Historical Society, Jefferson County Meth Action Team, Jefferson County 4-H, Jefferson County YMCA, the Boiler Room, Safe Harbor Recovery Center, Substance Abuse Advisory Board, Jefferson Teen Center, Department of Children and Family Services/Children’s Administration, Jumping Mouse Children’s Center, Jefferson Mental Health Services, Olycap, Brinnon School District, Chimacum School District, Port Townsend School District, Quilcene School District, Division of Behavioral Health & Recovery, Department of Social & Health Service, PT Kiwanis, The Rose Theatre, the Elks Lodge, Port Townsend & Jefferson County Leader and many, many more businesses, agencies and service clubs.